MINE WORKERS' SIDE OF THE CONTROVERSY

Presented to the Anthracite Strike Commission in Straightforward Facts and Figures by President Mitchell—Long Cross-Examination Followed.

By Associated Press.

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 14—The anthracite coal strike commission appointed by President Roosevelt to arbitrate the differences existing between the mine workers of the hard coal fields of Pennsylvania and their employers, today began the hearing of testimony by which it will determine whether or not the workmen are receiving fair and just wages for their labor, and whether the conditions should not be improved.

The star witness for the miners—President John Mitchell—took the stand in the forenoon, and when the commission adjourned at 4 o'clock in the afternoon he was still under the fire of cross-examination by David W. Willcox, general counsel for the Delaware & Hudson company. It was a trying day for the miners' leader, but he seemed to stand the test well. The heaviest fire of cross questions was aimed at him late in the afternoon session, and when the hour of adjournment was reached Mr. Willcox was still propounding question and testing Mr. Mitchell's memory.

The opening of the sessions was a notable day in the annals of the law in the upper anthracite region. Such an array of lawyers has never been seen in this part of the state and it is doubtful whether attorneys have ever been so numerous on one side of a case in this state as were present in the interests of the coal companies today. The commission's sessions are being held in the beautiful room of the Pennsylvania superior court which is now sitting in Philadelphia. Arranged around three of the tables in front of the seven commissioners who occupied the judges' bench were no less than 30 lawyers, 24 of whom were looking after the interests of the mine owners. An official list of the attorneys was handed to the commission and is as follows:

Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron company—Ex-Congressman Simon P. Wolverton of Sunbury; H. T. Newcomb, Philadelphia; J. F. Walen.

Lehigh & Wilkesbarre Coal company—DeForest Brothers, New York; A. F. McClintock, Wilkesbarre.

Temple Iron company—Willard, Warren & Knapp, Scranton.

Pennsylvania Coal company and Hillside Coal & Iron company—Wayne McVeagh, Philadelphia; George F. Brownell, New York; Everett Warren, Scranton.

Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Coal company—Walter W. Ross, New York; J. R. Wilson, Scranton.

Scranton Coal company and Elk Hill Coal & Iron company—John B. Kerr, New York; Alfred Hand, Scranton; James H. Burr, Carbondale, Pa.

Delaware & Hudson company—David Willcox, New York; James H. Torrey, Scranton, Pa.

Lehigh Valley Coal company—Francis I. Gowen, Philadelphia; Willard, Warren & Knapp.

Independent operators—C. F. Burns and H. C. Reynolds, Scranton.

Non-union miners—John T. Lenahan, Wilkesbarre; Joseph O'Brien, Scranton.

Besides President Mitchell of the Miners union, the mine workers were represented by Clarence S. Darrow of Chicago, as chief counsel; Henry D. Lloyd, Chicago; John F. Shea and James H. Shea, Wilkesbarre; James F. Lenahan, Wilkesbarre, and John J. Murphy, Scranton.

In addition to these there were many members of the bar present who came merely to look on. The court room at both sessions was packed almost to suffocation, and scores of persons were unable to gain admittance. Only one of the heads of the large coal companies, Chairman Thomas of the Erie, was present. There were among the spectators a large number of general superintendents and district and mine superintendents, all of whom took a deep interest and some of them made notes.

Grouped about Mr. Mitchell were District Presidents Nicholls, Duffy and Fahey, the three district secretaries, the three national board members and the members of the three district executive boards of the anthracite field. Scattered through the spectators were many practical miners who will be called upon to take the stand in behalf of the miners' claims.

The attitude of the commissioners was closely followed by every one in the court room. They appeared to be greatly interested in the cross-examination of Mr. Mitchell, but at times seemed to grow restless under the ceaseless fire of questions aimed at the mine workers' leader. Judge Gray, as chairman of the commission, being versed in court proceedings and in the law was the only spokesman for the commission. He at times asked questions and at the very close of the afternoon session directed a query at Mr. Mitchell which Mr. Willcox had been leading up to for some time. The chairman asked Mr. Mitchell whether his organization approved the act of withdrawing from or denying the necessaries of life to those who had offended the organization, and he replied:

"I should say, emphatically, no."

During the day Mr. Willcox asked Mr. Mitchell many questions as to the policies of the union, the method of calling strikes, the ability of the union to maintain discipline and prevent the members of the union from violating the law and also as to the liability of the union breaking contracts. It was apparent to many of those present who understood the situation that Mr. Willcox's object was to attempt to prove by Mr. Mitchell's own testimony that the contention of the companies that the Miners union was an irresponsible organization and that trade agreements therefore could not be safely entered into was well founded.

During the hearing the statement was brought out for the first time since the late strike was begun that the union had disbursed $1,500,000 among the union and non-union men who were on strike.

One of the question which came up before the commission was the advisability of hearing counsel on behalf of the non-union men who remained at work during the strike. Attorney John T. Lenahan, one of the attorneys for the non-union men asked the commission what his status before the arbitrators was. Judge Gray informed him that the question would be taken under consideration and that an answer probably would be given him tomorrow.

Mr. Mitchell, before taking the witness stand in the forenoon, presented the miners' side of the case in a 6,000-word statement. It took him 40 minutes to read his address and he was listened to by the commissioners and the operators with the closest attention.

It is not unlikely that Mr. Mitchell will be on the stand all day tomorrow, and probably longer. It is the intention of the miners to next call on Rev. Peter Roberts of Mahanoy City, who has an intimate knowledge of anthracite mining, and is the author of a book on the subject. During the hearing all the attorneys took copious notes and it looks as if the investigation would be long drawn out unless some arrangements for curtailing the cross-examination of witnesses is agreed upon.

The proceedings opened shortly after 10 o'clock when the members of the commission arrived.

Judge Gray announced that a sufficient time had been given for the parties to the controversy to prepare for the hearing, and that the commission would hear the representatives of the miners first. Mr. Mitchell said he would file a further statement on Monday in answer to some of the allegations of the operators. President Mitchell's statement contained 6,000 words, an abstract of which follows:

Mr. Mitchell prefaced his statement with the hope that the commission would succeed in establishing a relationship between the operators and miners that will insure peace and stability in the industry for an indefinite period. After reciting the demands for increased pay for the miner, a shorter work-day for the laborer, the weighing of the coal and an industrial agreement, the refusal of all of which led to the strike, Mr. Mitchell spoke as follows on the question of higher wages:

"Of the 147,000 men and boys employed in and around the mines, strippings, washeries and breakers in the anthracite coal fields, 64,072 or 54 per cent, are employed on contract or piece work; the remaining 83,000 or 57 per cent are employed by the hour, day, week or month. Of the 64,072 contract men, 37,604 are miners and 26,268 are miners' laborers.

"The work of a miner and a miner's laborer is extremely hazardous. In fact, it is more dangerous than employment in any other important industry in the world. The number of persons killed and injured is greater than in any other industry. Each day the anthracite coal mines are in operation two and six-tenths persons lose their lives and three times as many are maimed, and yet these men receive less wages annually than are received by men performing precisely similar work in other fields, under more favorable and less hazardous conditions. The number of years a man can retain his health and strength in this occupation is limited. If he escapes death or injury by falls of rock or coal, he cannot escape attacks of miners' asthma. There is scarcely a mine worker who has not contracted this malady. The miners are compelled to work in powder smoke, in foul air, many of them in water and their work is difficult and exhausting. Reputable insurance companies will not issue policies to this class of workmen, the risks are so great that the premiums would be prohibitive to men whose earnings are so low.

"The entire 20 per cent which they demand as an increase in their wages would not suffice to carry an insurance of $1,000.

"It seems but fair and just that wages paid these classes of workmen should be as high, if not higher, than wages paid to skilled artisans in other industries. It is certainly not unjust to ask that these miners should receive as high wages as are paid to miners in the bituminous coal fields, in the silver and gold mines or in the iron ore or copper mines, in all of which work is less hazardous, freer from liability to disease, requiring less experience and skill, and is better paid than labor in the anthracite coal fields."

In supporting the demand for the reduction of the hours of the day laborers, Mr. Mitchell showed that it amounted practically to a demand for 20 per cent increase of compensation for 83,000 men, or 57 per cent of all mine employes.

Continuing, he said:

"The eight-hour day is the standard working-day in the mining industry. Eight hours constitute a day's work in the coal mines of Great Britain, in all the silver, gold and copper mines and in the bituminous coal mines in the states of Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, Tennessee, in western Pennsylvania and the Indian Territory.

"The reports of the United States geological survey demonstrate that more coal has been produced annually since the inauguration of the eight-hour work-day than in any preceding year. Each miner produced more coal per working day in eight hours than he formerly produced in 10 hours, and there is no reason why the same result would not be obtained in the anthracite field. The bituminous workers receive in many instances from 20 to 40 per cent higher wages for eight hours' work than are paid in the anthracite mines for 10 hours' work."

Defending the third demand that coal shall be weighed and paid for by weight and that 2,240 pounds shall constitute a ton, Mr. Mitchell declared that the present method of measuring the coal produced by the miners in the Lackawanna, Wyoming and Lehigh regions has been the source of more discontent than any other of the injustices imposed upon the miners and there can be no contentment among these workers until an honest system has been adopted. Paying for coal by the car or by the ton weighing from 2,740 to 3,100 pounds, is a flagrant injustice. The cars have been larger, more topping is required and there has been no corresponding increase in the amount paid per car or per ton. The miners have been forced to produce a constantly increasing amount of coal for which they receive no additional compensation.

The miner should be paid for every pound of coal he mines that is sold by the operators. If 2,240 pounds constitute a ton when coal is sold to the consumer and when railroad companies are paid for transporting coal to market what justice can there be in denying the miner the right to be paid for his labor upon the same basis?

"The anthracite companies, not satisfied with an extra legal ton of from 2,740 to 3,100 pounds, have a system of docking through which they appropriate an additional part of the miners' earnings. A miner is docked all the way from 500 to 1,000 pounds upon a car, as a penalty for loading impurities for which he has already been penalized to the extent of from 700 to 900 pounds in excess measure of weight; in other words, he is punished twice for the same offense.

"A system somewhat similar, but less unjust, obtained in portions of the bituminous coal fields many years ago, but the miners are now paid by weight upon the basis of a legal ton, they are not only permitted but are encouraged by the miners to employ check weighmen to see that the product of their labor is properly weighed and a correct record made thereof."

Mr. Mitchell then took up the fourth demand of the miners for a trade agreement with the necessary machinery for the adjustment of local grievances. He outlined the history and policy of the United Mine Workers of America and explained that by its constitution, the anthracite and bituminous mine workers had home [illegible]

CELEBRATION POSTPONED FOR THE GREATER EVENT OF INAUGURATION

Republican Jollification Will Take Place in January and Will Be the Greatest Event of the Kind Which Has Ever Taken Place in the West—President of the United States and Others Invited.

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, Nov. 14.—Chairman Fairley of the Republican State Central committee is making very extensive preparations for the inaugural ceremonies of the Republican state officials in January. He has sent invitations to the president of the United States, Secretary Root, Senator Lodge, Senator Beveridge and others, to be present. It is his purpose to make the inaugural ceremonies the most impressive and notable of any that ever took place in the state.

With that end in view Chairman Fairley has decided to abandon the jollification meeting announced for Tuesday evening and to combine the inaugural ceremonies and the jollification in one immense celebration. This action has been taken at the request of Republicans from all sections of the state as well as at the request of many of the Republican officials elect. Accordingly Chairman Fairley today issued the following notice to the Republicans of the state, of the postponement of the jollification meeting:

Headquarters Republican State Central Committee, Denver, Colo. Nov. 14, 1902.

"To the Republicans of the State of Colorado:

"Owing to the disposition of the Republicans of the state to have elaborate inaugural ceremonies at the time of the inauguration of Governor Peabody and other state officers, within the next six weeks, and owing to the fact that several of the speakers invited to attend the proposed celebration on next Tuesday night, November 18, in the city of Denver, cannot attend at that time and owing to the limitations placed upon the railroad tickets for the proposed meeting, by which the Republicans of the state cannot remain as long as they would like, it has therefore been deemed wisest and best by the officers of the Republican State Central committee to postpone the Republican jollification until the inauguration of Governor Peabody and the other Republican officials in January next, for which time this committee is making extensive preparations for a celebration to be participated in by the Republicans of the entire state.

"That occasion being so near at hand and two jollifications being unnecessary and more expensive than this committee can afford, therefore, the celebration of the recent Republican state victory is hereby postponed until the time of the inauguration in January.

"D. B. Fairley,
"Chairman Republican State Central Committee."

The following letter was sent to W. V. Hodges, president of the Republican club:

"Denver, Nov. 14.

"Hon. W. V. Hodges,
Denver, Colo.

"Dear Sir: In view of the considerations set forth in the inclosed statement, the meeting to celebrate the recent Republican victory, set for next Tuesday night, November 18, is hereby postponed until the time for the inauguration of Governor Peabody and other state officers, in January next.

"You will therefore please discontinue all preparations for the meeting which was contemplated for next Tuesday night. I have already arranged through the medium of the press and otherwise for all concerned to be advised.

"Respectfully yours,
"D. B. Fairley, Chairman."

MANY RESOLUTIONS BEFORE THE FEDERATION OF LABOR

By Associated Press.

New Orleans, Nov. 14.—Another day was devoted by the American Federation of Labor to work preparatory for the actual duties of the convention. Reports of committees and the introduction of resolutions took up all of the sessions. No action was taken on any of the resolutions. They were simply received by the presiding officer and by him referred to the various committees whose report upon them will be submitted later to the convention for final action. Eighty-seven resolutions were submitted. Many of them related to minor points of organization, to requests that various firms be placed upon the "unfair list" and no claims of jurisdiction. Outside of those the following are the resolutions of chief interest.

"That the United States government be asked to return to Puerto Rico those people who were induced to leave that island for Hawaii under fake promises of better industrial conditions."

"That any many who shall have reached the age of 60 years who is a naturalized citizen and has lived 21 years in this country and whose average annual income has been less than $1,000 per annum, be given a life pension of $12 per month."

"That the national headquarters be removed from Washington to Denver."

For the enactment of mining laws for Indian territory, particularly for the licensing of mining engineers and hoisting engineers.

That a protest be made against the ship subsidy bill, "as it is calculated to extend over the sea the same monopoly held by the railroads on land" and that the federal on encourage the department of a naturalization body of American seamen.

That protest be made against the forcible return of deserting seamen from private vessels. No allusion is made to ships of war.

That the Federation protest against the construction of either the Panama or Nicaragua canals, "as the country must either acquire more territory or encroach upon the liberties of the Latin-American states."

That the Federation protest against the harsh treatment given labor organizers in Puerto Rico under the old Spanish laws of the island.

That efforts be made to defeat the anti-ticket scalping bill now before congress and all the city ordinances enacted against ticket brokers.

That the 3,000 employes of the national bureau of printing and engraving be unionized.

That aid be extended to the letter carriers in their efforts to secure higher wages.

For a declaration by the American Federation of Labor that a building devoted to the use of union labor should be erected in every town of 15,000 or more inhabitants.

That all demands for increase in wages or change in conditions must be first made to the central labor bodies.

For recognition of the principles of international socialism.

To encourage the study of economic subjects in all organizations.

VOTED TO EXPEL HINSEY.

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Nov. 14.—After a session that lasted nearly all the week the grand tribunal of Illinois Knights of Pythias has voted unanimously to expel John A. Hinsey, who was retired from the head of the board of control of the endowment rank last year. Mr. Hinsey has appealed to the supreme tribunal, which will meet at Indianapolis in February.

At the recent meeting of the supreme lodge in San Francisco he was suspended from its membership pending the action of the Illinois grand tribunal. Dr. Albert E. Dornfeleur, who was medical director of the endowment rank during the Hinsey administration has been suspended for a year by the Illinois grand tribunal. Secretary H. D. Stoltel, who also was to have been tried, died last month. In the sixteen months since the Hinsey administration was retired, the endowment rank, according to its announcement today has paid up a half million dollars of overdue death claims and now has nearly $600,000 cash on hand.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR HENRY CLAY BARNABEE

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Nov. 14.—Members of the Bostonians, which troupe sang "Robin Hood" here tonight, gave Henry Clay Barnabee a birthday party in his dressing room before the curtain was raised this evening. Mr. Barnabee takes the role of the sheriff in Robin Hood, and this evening, when he arrived at his dressing room, instead of finding, as usual, the four bare walls, it was a mass of flowers from floor to ceiling, and on a table dozens of elegant presents were lying, which were given by different members of the troupe. Mr. Barnabee is 69 years of age tonight, and his last remark to your correspondent was: "I shall never forget Cripple Creek as long as I live, as tonight is one of the happiest I ever remember."

FAILURE OF SMALL BANK NOT FELT IN FINANCIAL CIRCLES

By Associated Press.

Boston, Nov. 14.—The Central National bank, a small institution compared with many other city banks, did not open its doors today because of an order from the comptroller of the currency who had placed National Bank Examiner W. Neal over it as temporary receiver. Impaired assets are given as the first reason of the failure. The incident did not produce any flurry in financial circles as the closing of the bank through liquidation by the Elliott National bank was looked for and such liquidation it was supposed, had commenced.

The incident which precipitated the failure was the rejection of a considerable portion of the Central bank's assets by President Burrage of the Elliott bank who was scrutinizing them preparatory to taking the bank for liquidation. Another portion of the assets was known to have been acceptable and the action of President Burrage and the Elliott bank directorate in refusing to liquidate the bank was unexpected. On Wednesday sales of the Central's stock dropped $15 from par and yesterday depositors withdrew something like $3,000,000. Later in the day the clearing house declined to aid the bank and certified checks of the bank were refused acceptance by other banks. Over night preparations were made to place a receiver in charge of the bank and in fulfillment of this plan the doors were placarded today.

Many banks came to the relief of the Central's depositors, the National Shawmut offering to advance 50 per cent of their deposits. Director Moses W. Richardson of the bank tonight said that depositors probably would be paid in full and while the stockholders may be called upon for a quick assessment in the end they will lose nothing. Officers of other banks are of the opinion that the Central's failure will not be noticed in financial circles.

REICHSTAG HAS ADOPTED NEW SYSTEM OF VOTING

Berlin, Nov. 14—The reichstag today By Associated Press. by 197 to 78 votes, directed to abandon voting by roll call and adopted a method of voting by card similar to the practice of the French chamber of deputies.

The Socialists and Moderate Radicals, being in a hopeless minority, offered only a listless opposition. For three hours until the decisive vote was taken at about 5 o'clock the time was spent in monotonous roll calls on minor propositions. Four bronze cups were carried by servants up and down the aisles. Each cup was attended by an assistant secretary. Into these cups the members dropped cards on which their names were printed and with "yes" or "nay" or "not voting" also printed on them. Each member marked out two of these designations, leaving one standing as his vote. The Socialists attempted to waste time in preparing their cards, but after all delays, the vote, which was 194 to 71 on an obstructive motion of the moderate Radicals was announced [illegible] minutes as against [illegible] minutes for the old way. It is calculated that when the members get accustomed to the method 200 votes will be taken and counted in five minutes.

"If any member doubts the correctness of the count," said President von Ballestrem, "he can verify the ballots in the secretary's room."

Herr Spahn of the Center party said: "We shall have to adopt a rule to limit debate before our parliament is as effective a working body as that of the United States congress."

After a subsequent vote by the new process Herr Singer, Socialist, complained that members dropped their cards into the cups themselves instead of handing them to the secretaries for deposit. This occasioned a stormy passage, during which, amid Socialist cries of "It is false," "It is a swindle," President von Ballestrom rang his bell and excitedly exclaimed: "Gentlemen, remember this is the German reichstag and not the Austrian reichsrath."

The evening papers quote the president's remark but suppress the words "Austrian reichsrath."

Such an exclamation from the president of the reichstag is considered likely to produce comment in Austria and may possibly call for an official disclaimer here.

The tariff obstructionists in the reichstag have by no means given up the fight, but by the adoption of the new voting rule their principal weapon is now taken out of their hands.

COLONEL BUTLER WAS SENTENCED TO THREE YEARS IN THE PENITENTIARY

By Associated Press.

Columbia, Mo., Nov. 14.—Colonel Ed Butler, millionaire and politician of St. Louis, on trial charged with attempting to bribe Dr. Chapman of the St. Louis board of health, in order to influence his vote on the indorsement of a garbage contract with the city has been found guilty by the jury which assessed the punishment at three years in the penitentiary. The verdict, found last night, was announced today.

T. H. Hickman, foreman of the jury, says the verdict was reached on the first ballot.

Juror W. H. Cockran said: "The jury was unanimous on guilt from the first. The testimony of Dr. Chapman followed by Dr. Merrell was convincing. Some of the jury wanted to give Butler the limit. One man wanted to give him only a fine and jail sentence.

"The sentence was the hardest thing to decide. We fixed that at 10:30 last night, three hours after we got together."

Colonel Butler and his wife, his two sons, Congressman James J. and Edward, Jr., and their wives were in the court room when the verdict was received. Judge Hockaday read the verdict, as follows:

"We, the jury, find the defendant, Edward Butler, guilty as charged and assess punishment at imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term of three years.
"T. C. Hickman,
"Foreman."

All eyes were turned toward Butler. A defiant glance came to his face, then his features subsided into the expression of half disgust which he wore while listening to the testimony and arguments.

When asked by Judge Hockaday if he had any reason to offer why sentence should not be passed on him, Edward Butler said:

"I have nothing to say, your honor, further than that I am not guilty of the charge preferred against me."

"The jury has passed on that question, Mr. Butler," was Judge Hockaday's reply. "In accordance with the verdict I sentence you to imprisonment in the state penitentiary for a term of three years."

The filing of an appeal to the state supreme court followed. Judge Hockaday fixed Butler's bond at $10,000, which was signed by a number of prominent citizens of Columbia.

A LEAN BLACK BEAR AT THE PRESIDENT'S CAMP

By Associated Press.

Smedes, Miss., Nov. 14.—A lean, black bear, which weighs 235 pounds is hanging up at the president's camp at the Little Sunflower, but to the regret of all the members of the party the first trophy of the hunt did not fall to the president's rifle. The bear's trail was struck by the hounds soon after the party started this morning.

The members of the party, except Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Foote, Mr. Parker and Holt Collier, had been stationed at the various crossings and as soon as the dogs gave tongue the president and his guides plunged through the dense underbrush in pursuit. Within a few minutes the dogs showed the direction the quarry was taking and Holt Collier, with the instinct of an old bear hunter, immediately made up his mind as to where the animal would come out. To save the president needless hard riding through the brush he directed Mr. Foote to take the president along the trail to a certain cut-off. This was done and the president and Mr. Foote rode to the assigned station. On the way several swamp deer were jumped, but no effort was made to get a shot at them. For several hours the president and Mr. Foote waited. The trail of the bear carried the yelping hounds out of hearing and shortly after noon Mr. Roosevelt [illegible] hope that the quarry would come back their way, and he and the president returned to camp for lunch. Had they remained the president would have had a shot as the bear with the pack at its heels crossed almost the exact spot which Holt had indicated.

About a mile beyond this point, the bear, exhausted by his long race, ran into a water hole and turned upon the dogs. They were all over him in an instant. The poor beast was too exhausted to make much of a fight, but he grabbed one of the hounds by the neck and crushed through its spine, killing it instantly.

Collier roped the bear and tied him to a tree. When the president, who had been summoned, arrived, he would neither shoot it nor permit it to be shot. Mr. Parker ended its life with his knife.

On the way to camp with the dead bear, the dogs struck a fresh trail and the president, Mr. Foote, Mr. Mangum, Secretary Cortelyou and Dr. Lung followed [illegible]. Mr. Fish and Mr. Parker returned to camp. At dark, when the Associated Press correspondent left there was no sign of the president and some anxiety was manifested lest the president in his enthusiasm should get too far away and be forced to camp overnight [illegible].

No steps have yet been taken by the board of county commissioners to carry out the improvements at the county jail recommended by the committee, which made the investigation a short time ago. It was thought that after this investigation which was mild as compared to the others, the commissioners would carry out the work at once but nothing has been done so far.

It is believed that instead of temporary improvements, the board should follow out the full specifications proposed by City Plumbing Inspector C. P. Quinlan. Mr. Quinlan made a thorough investigation of the plumbing some time ago, as has been repeatedly stated in these columns and prepared lengthy and complete specifications as to what was needed in the way of plumbing. He showed where the present plumbing is old and worn out and inadequate to do the work expected of it although it may have been very serviceable when put in some 15 years ago. These specifications were turned over to the board some weeks ago and were never acted upon. Then the board of county visitors made an investigation and even went further in its recommendations for improvements than did Mr. Quinlan, whose judgment as a plumbing expert is certainly to be accepted as good.

The recommendations of the county visitors were not acted upon by the board and instead a committee composed of Health Commissioner Hanford, Professor William Strieby and Alderman St. John was asked to make an investigation which it did, its recommendations being also for improvement but not being so sweeping as the visitors'.

El Paso county's jail is one of the best managed and best kept institutions of the kind in the country and the expenditure of a comparatively small amount of money would put entirely new plumbing in the building throughout. The repairs recommended by the committee would be only temporary and it is contended that if anything is to be done it should be a permanent work. The county commissioners have claimed that the money is not on hand to make a complete change but from a sanitary standpoint it would be better to expend a few thousand dollars and put the jail plumbing in modern shape now than to make temporary renovations that would have to be remade again in a short time. However, nothing has been done even in that direction. It is believed that the city plumbing inspector has the power to condemn the plumbing, if, in his judgment, he sees fit.

Reibscheid Gets Verdict [illegible] $15[illegible] Against Two [illegible]

After a trial lasting two days and a deliberation lasting a couple of hours, the jury in the more or less famous case of Alex Reibscheid vs. Police Officers D. H. Bennett and C. N. Draper, returned a verdict to Judge Orr of the county court, finding against the defendants and in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $150. The verdict was returned at about 9:30 last evening.

The plaintiff sued for something less than $2,000 upon the grounds of malicious prosecution. He claimed that he was arrested by the police officers on a charge of conducting a tippling house and was acquitted upon his trial in police court. The case has attracted considerable interest. City Attorney J. W. Sheafor appeared for the defendants and made a hard fight. The plaintiff was represented by McKesson & Little. Reibscheid conducts a clothing store on Huerfano street and is well known. The defendants are two of the best known officers on the police force.

NORMAN E. MACK IS HERE FOR FEW DAYS

Proprietor of the Buffalo Evening Times at Antlers With His Family.

ON THE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE

He Regards David Bennett Hill as the Most Likely Leader of the Democratic Party at the Present Time—Thinks Teller Should Be Returned to the Senate.

Norman E. Mack of Buffalo, Democratic national committeeman, is stopping at the Antlers with his wife and family. Mrs. Mack has been in the city for several weeks with her mother, so Mr. Mack decided to come out and spend the remainder of the month in Colorado with them.

Mr. Mack is proprietor of the Buffalo Times and as such is well known all over the east and middle west. He has also gained considerable prominence as national committeeman of the Democratic party during the campaign just closed.

"We put up a great fight in New York," said Mr. Mack, "and reduced Odell's previous plurality of 100,000 to a bare 10,000, and also succeeded in electing several of the candidates to offices, among them the offices of attorney general and justice of the court of appeals. The latter office was secured by the party in the face of the strong effort of President Roosevelt to carry it for his candidate, Davies. If it had been a nice day we would surely have carried the election. It was a Republican day, wet and rainy, and we couldn't get out the entire Democratic vote. There were 1,600,000 votes polled in this last election, so you see what a big thing an election is in that state."

Mr. Mack thinks that the state of Colorado will be brought into disgrace if Teller is turned down by the Colorado legislature. "In my opinion," said Mr. Mack, "Teller is the grand old man of the state and his removal from the senatorship by the legislature would be a blow upon the state. Yes sir, a blot upon the state. I understand that the senatorial race in this state is to be a warmly contested one, but if Senator Teller is not re-elected the state will lose its prominence in the senate. The people of the east have associated the state with Teller and he is one of the grandest men in public life today. The Democrats of the east are all united in the hope that he will be successful in obtaining the necessary votes for election. If there were anything any of us outside of Colorado could do to help him you may be sure that we would do it. Mr. Teller is one of the greatest men of today and his services should not be lost either to the state or to the nation by failure to re-elect him."

While Mr. Mack thinks it is a trifle early yet to talk of candidates for the presidential campaign of 1904, he is decidedly of the opinion that David B. Hill will be the Democratic nominee. He is the recognized leader of the party in New York, according to Mr. Mack, and has made himself immensely popular by the way in which he conducted the present campaign in New York state. "If Mr. Hill decides to allow his name to be used as a candidate he will receive the united support of the Democracy of New York."

Mr. Mack thinks that Roosevelt will not be in it with Hill in the race of 1904. "While Roosevelt is very popular in the state of New York as a man," said the Democratic national committeeman, "he is too closely affiliated with the trusts to stand any show in the next campaign. Roosevelt is standing with his hands tied, so to speak, and is unable on account of a threatened division of the party to take a firm stand on the trust question or on the tariff question even though he or some of the Republicans should wish him to do so. I think the Republican party will be divided during the next election on this very question and that we are sure of a victory."

Mr. Mack was the founder of the Buffalo Times, an evening publication of that city. The paper was started in 1882 and is now one of the leading dailies of Buffalo. This is not Mr. Mack's first visit west as he and his wife were here on their honeymoon several years ago, enroute from Colorado. He likes the country and the climate and will spend the next month in Colorado Springs.

SOLDIER BOYS DANCED AT ALAMO LAST NIGHT

The members of Company I of the First Colorado National Guard held the first of a series of dances that are to be given by them during the winter in the Alamo ball room last night.

The local battalion of national guardsmen have been giving a ball every year but it was not until this winter that monthly dances were started. This affair last night was strictly for Company I and their friends. Admission was by invitation and a very select crowd was in attendance. The walls of the ball room of the hotel were beautifully decorated with an abundance of American flags and covering the ceiling were large festoons of blue and white, the colors of the company. About 50 couples were present and the evening was delightfully spent in dancing to the excellent music furnished by Prof. Edwin Dietrich and his hotel orchestra. Twelve numbers were on the program with two extra dances. Dainty refreshments consisting of ices and cake were served during the evening. Mrs. C. A. Southard, mother of Captain Southard of the company, acted as patroness and assisted the members of the company in entertaining the guests. Major Davis of the battalion was among those present at the dance.

[illegible] Patrons of the Schools [illegible] Be Discussed—Outline of Several Programs.

This afternoon a general parents meeting will be held in all of the public school buildings of the city. The meetings will be held at 2 o'clock and all people having an interest in the schools are urged to be present whether they are parents of children attending these schools or not. Plans have been under way for these meetings for some time and they are being sanctioned by the board of education in order that the teachers and parents may come in closer touch and become better acquainted. At the meetings this afternoon topics of general interest will be taken up for general discussion after the regular program. Superintendent Dietrich has interested the principals of the different buildings to make the meetings as informal as possible and everyone will be invited to take part in the discussions. The fathers of the district are especially invited to be present this afternoon as well as the mothers. Interesting programs have been prepared for all of the meetings and among the subjects to be discussed will be those of home study, and how much; irregular habits, effects upon home and school, relations of parents and teachers, mental fatigue, courtesy, cleanliness and bathing, effects of environment on character, the child out of school, out of door recreation, the conduct of children on the streets, and others.

The meetings promise to be largely attended as already considerable interest has been manifested among the parents of the children attending the different schools of the city. At the regular monthly parents meetings held in some of the buildings there are always a large number of parents present and much good has been done on account of the meetings.

Following are some of the programs for the different buildings this afternoon and evening:

Garfield school—"Round Table," discussion of the deportment of pupils on the street and in public places. Dr. H. W. Hoagland will also read a paper on the "Early Detection of Contagious Diseases," which promises to be of considerable interest to all parents of school children as well as the teachers. There will be other ways of entertaining the visitors and a large attendance is expected.

Helen Hunt school—This meeting will be held at 7:30 in the evening instead of 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the time of the others meetings. Judge James Orr will lead the discussion upon the subject of "The Boy." Dr. W. W. Hills will speak on "The Value of Regular Habits in Character Building." Prof. I. H. Jackson will also speak upon "The Moral Influence of Games." All Hillside parents are cordially invited to attend.

Lillie school—Rev. C. H. Wilcox will speak on "The Influence of Environment." A general discussion will follow which will be led by Mrs. Lucas, Mrs. Tucker, Mrs. Paulling, Mrs. Buck and Mrs. Burnside. A reception will follow the discussion.

Lowell school—"Effects of Irregular Habits Upon Home and School," by Miss Shannon. "Habits and Character Building," by Dr. W. H. W. Boyle, and "What Children Read, and When?" by Mrs. Dunbar.

Lincoln school—Discussions of "The Child Out of School Hours." 1. Home responsibilities of the child. 2. Indoor recreation, a. Literature, b. Games. 3. Outdoor recreation, a. Nature study, b. play. All friends of the school are invited to be present.

Columbia school—"The Training of American Citizens," by Rev. Benjamin Brewster. The different points of the subject will also be discussed by F. H. Gandy, Miss Meredith Smith, supervisor of manual training in the public schools of the city; Arthur Bray, D. A. Russell, Miss Lois Barr, Miss Chamberlain, Mrs. Barker, Dr. Chamberlain, Miss Weller, Superintendent Deacon of the Printers' home, Mr. Karnes and others. The points to be given special attention are: The mental, physical, social and patriotic sides of the question. Manual training in the city schools will also be taken up.

The other schools of the city will also have special programs for the day.

What came near to being a very serious accident occurred on the Colorado Springs and Interurban Railway company's line in the heart of the business section of the city at about 5 o'clock last evening. As it was, a Manitou car was badly damaged and will have to go back to the "rip track" for awhile.

Manitou car No. 56, going west, was crossing Tejon street on Pike's Peak avenue, when the city electric sprinkler car came shooting down Tejon bound south. Both the motorman on the Manitou car and the motorman on the sprinkler saw the danger and each shouted to the other. The Manitou car was right on the tracks of the approaching sprinkler and the brake on the latter failed to work. The result was a collision. Fortunately the Manitou car had got nearly across the Tejon street tracks and the sprinkler struck only the rear end. The platform and vestibule of the Manitou car were shattered and the car wrenched. The sprinkler escaped with little harm.

The Manitou car was just out of the repair shops and looked like new. It was one of the big Laclede closed cars and the damage done will cost some money to repair. There were several passengers in the car but none were hurt. No one was responsible for the accident.

[illegible] Meeting Last Night

Officers of the Caledonian society for the ensuing year were elected at the regular stated meeting in the Caledonian hall last night. There were a large number of candidates put forward for the various offices and Judge Orr and Mayor Robinson acted as tellers. The result of the election was as follows: Chief, G. M. Bryson; secretary, R. Crosby; financial secretary, John Ferguson; treasurer, James Fell; chaplain, Rev. G. Crawford; chieftains, J. R. Duncan, John Izett; directors, F. E. Hill, Dr. Reddie. Chief Green presided over the meeting. The annual reports were read by the financial secretary showing the society to be in good condition. Arrangements were made for the December meeting, which will take the form of a concert in celebration of St. Andrews' day. Mr. Hill read a highly interesting paper on "The Kail Yard School" and on motion of John Ferguson, was tendered a vote of thanks. The meeting adjourned with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

Farewell [illegible] W. McK. Barbour

William McK. Barbour, who leaves shortly for St. Joseph, Mo., to become connected with the Gazette of that city, was tendered a farewell dinner at the Antlers hotel last evening by a number of his friends. A splendid repast was served and while deep regret was felt by the guests over the fact that it is probably the last time they will gather round the festal board with Mr. Barbour as a resident of Colorado Springs, he declined to permit that to prevent them from thoroughly enjoying his company and he theirs. The menu card was got up in a unique manner. Lobster pattles, "a la Newburg," tenderloin of beef, "a la Barbour," punch, "St. Joseph" and mallard duck, "a la press" were among the delicacies served. All in all, it was a jolly gathering and one that will be long remembered by the guest of honor and his entertainers.

POPULAR ENTERTAINMENT THIS EVENING AT PERKINS HALL.

Dress Rehearsal Was Held Last Night and All Indications Point to a Big Success.

If Judge Robert Kerr is never master of another situation during his natural life-time, he will be master of the Deestrickt Skule that is to hold a session at Perkins hall tonight.

At least such was the ultimatum that the distinguished jurist hurled at his unruly pupils at the dress rehearsal last night.

Judging from the austerity of the demeanor of the schoolmaster it is not altogether outside the range of possibilities that there may be a few "scholars" literally dropped right in front of all the people at the big show tonight.

The staging and costuming of the company is elaborate and there is every indication at present that the artistic as well as the financial success of the entertainment is assured. The various parts have been exceedingly well prepared and there is enough local and original fun thrown in to keep interest at a high pitch throughout.

Tickets are on sale at the Knight-Campbell Music company's store in the Lennox building. Following is the cast:

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Gertrude Warner Scott Cured by the Great Kidney Remedy, Swamp-Root.

Vinton, Iowa, July 15th, 1901.

Gentlemen:—My trouble began with pain in my stomach and back, so severe that it seemed as if knives were cutting me. I was treated by two of the best physicians in the county, and consulted another. None of them suspected that the cause of my trouble was kidney disease. They all told me that I had cancer of the stomach, and would die. I grew so weak that I could not walk any more than a child a month old, and I only weighed ninety pounds. One day my brother saw in a paper your advertisement of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy. He bought me a bottle at our drug store and I took it. My family could see a change in me for the better, so they obtained more and I continued the use of Swamp-Root regularly. I was so weak and run down that it took considerable time to build me up again. I am now well, thanks to Swamp-Root, and weigh 148 pounds, and am keeping house for my husband and brother. Swamp-Root cured me after the doctors had failed to do me a particle of good.

(Gertrude Warner Scott.) Gertrude Warner Scott

Women suffer untold misery because the nature of their disease is not correctly understood; in many cases when doctoring, they are led to believe that womb trouble or female weakness of some sort is responsible for their ills, when in fact disordered kidneys are the chief cause of their distressing troubles.

The mild and extraordinary effect of the world-famous kidney and bladder remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. A trial will convince anyone—and you may have a sample bottle sent free, by mail.

Sample Bottle of Swamp-Root Free by Mail.

EDITORIAL NOTE—If you have the slightest symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble, or if there is a trace of it in your family history, send at once to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at the drug stores everywhere. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

CANDIDATES FOR STATEHOOD.

ONE OF THE questions that will confront congress upon its reassembling in Washington next month will be the matter of admission of the territories of Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma as states of the union.

Strictly speaking, it would be more correct to say that this problem will confront the senate, since, as our readers doubtless remember, the bill for the admission of these three territories has already passed the house of representatives, and December 10 has been fixed as a day upon which a vote on the pending bill will be taken in the senate.

A good many persons have watched the result of the recent elections for delegates in congress with considerable interest upon the idea that the political situation there might make some difference in the fate of the pending admission bill. A Republican congress naturally would give the preference to Republican territories, and would be slow about admitting to the union a state that would return Democratic representatives and senators. The result of the elections from this standpoint were quite inconclusive. New Mexico went Republican, and Arizona Democratic, while in Oklahoma the political result was so close as to afford no conclusive evidence of the political complexion of that proposed state.

It is not, however, a matter of no great importance whether the new states are firmly established in the political faith of the ruling party as is commonly supposed. It will be remembered that some years ago quite a number of northwestern territories were admitted as states, and at the time it was generally believed that these new states would secure the Republican power in congress for many years to come. Yet about the first thing they did after their admission was to go solidly Democratic, and it is only in the present year that they have returned to the Republican fold. A policy of justice will do more to advance the political interests of any party than any selfish catering to partisan advantage.

Strong arguments may be advanced in favor of the admission of these territories, and these arguments have been made familiar by the debates in congress and by newspapers throughout the country. Oklahoma certainly has all the qualifications of statehood and seems certain of admission, whatever may be done with the other two. But New Mexico and Arizona are the only large territories remaining in the main area of the United States. Their admission must come within a few years anyhow, and it would be most decidedly to their interest to have statehood perfected now, especially as they have the necessary qualifications of population, wealth and intelligence.

A strong element in favor of the admission of the new states is the personal influence of President Roosevelt. In this as in all other matters, he is the sincere and intelligent friend of the west and of western interests.

Just at present a senatorial committee of investigation is on its way to investigate the situation in Arizona and New Mexico, it being conceded that Oklahoma is worthy of admission. This committee professes to be fair minded and impartial, and if it is so, we feel certain that it will return to Washington with the recommendation that the house bill be passed by the senate.

The real ground of objection to the admission of the three new states lies in the sectional jealousy of eastern and northeastern interests that look with disfavor on the growing power of the west and southwest. This is not sufficient cause to block the admission of states otherwise well qualified.

It is not true that the people of the west or southwest are inferior in any way to those of the east and northeast. Our native born Americans are just as intelligent and patriotic, and quite as conscientious as those of any other section, while our Mexican population may be compared to the immigrants of New York and New England very much to the disadvantage of the latter class.

The admission of Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona will round out the family of American states. It will give us a great republic of 48 commonwealths independently governed as to local affairs, but all heartily loyal to the union, and vying with each other in material and intellectual progress, and each contributing its part toward the upbuilding of the greatest and grandest nation the world has ever seen.

It should be a matter of pride to the Republican party, which has done so much for the development of the newer parts of the country, and especially of the great west, to improve its opportunity for setting the capstone on the magnificent national structure.

In a number of Colorado counties in the recent elections, propositions were submitted to the voters for the establishment of county high schools at the county seats, and in a majority of cases these were approved. This county high school system is a great improvement over the old city or town high schools. There are few counties in this state that should not be glad to support a good high school at the county seat, and if the system were in general vogue the results would be most beneficial.

President Roosevelt's willingness to make the acquaintance of the black bear of the canebrake swamps is a proof that the spirit of the hunter survives amid the cares of the chief magistrate. But after his experiences with Rocky mountain grizzlies all that can happen in Mississippi will be a pastime rather than an adventure.

It cost $300,000 to acquit Roland B. Molineux of the charge of murder. There is evident room for improvement in the American method of trying criminals.

MR. HOWBERT'S CANDIDACY.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT of the candidacy of Mr. Irving Howbert for the United States senate, made by Chairman Farley, is characterized by modesty, good sense and due regard for the peculiar political situation and the interests of the Republican party, present and future.

Mr. Howbert is in full accord with the sentiments recently expressed by the Gazette in regard to the necessity for pursuing a course of absolute justice toward the people of the state, and the fatal danger of taking partisan action that is not fully warranted by clearly established facts.

The announcement of Mr. Howbert's candidacy at this time will also serve to remind senators and representatives-elect of the unwisdom of tying themselves with promises to any person at the present time, and it will greatly increase the probability that the Republican members of the assembly, if they are called to choose a United States senator, will elect one who will be approved by the people of the state.

Mr. Howbert is one of the best known Republicans of the state, and few men of any party have contributed more to its material welfare and prosperity. If the Republicans of the senate and house should have the power to select a senator of the United States and their choice should rest upon Mr. Howbert the approval of El Paso county would be unanimous, and there would be no dissent from other counties.

LOCAL FALL BUSINESS.

REPORTS FROM MANY of the leading merchants of the city agree that there has been a notable quickening of business since the election and the probability is that this will continue and even increase until the holiday season ends after New Year.

Reports from those who are in a position to know such things positively confirm the Gazette opinion, stated some time ago, that there is a larger number of visitors in the city than is usual at this time of the year, and that the prospects are excellent for a successful winter resort season. For this satisfactory condition due credit should be given the railroads that have been making unusual efforts to promote the winter resort business of this city and state.

The general local conditions are good, and there is every reason to believe that merchants and others interested in the general business situation may look forward to a prosperous season.

There are two things that will tend directly toward this result. One is the confidence in the city and its future which has always been such a notable feature of Colorado Springs business circles. An immense amount of harm may be done in any community by general talk of hard times. Such talk serves to minimize favorable conditions, and it is an invitation to disaster. On the other hand cheerful anticipations and confidence go far to bring about the conditions they predict, and increase the value of every natural benefit.

The same spirit of energy and hopefulness that has been so manifest in the past in this city was never more warranted by existing conditions than it is at the present time, and it can surely accomplish as important results as any that have been already secured.

And the other element of local business success is local loyalty and pride. Home trading helps home business not only directly, but also on account of the stimulus it imparts to the spirit of local enterprise and co-operation. The people who make it a rule to buy things at home are the ones who can be most reliably depended upon to encourage the building up of the city and its interests in every important material way.

No one knows what the city can do for itself until the trial has been made, and the spirit of home trading, carried to its legitimate end, is bound to result in great benefits outside of the limits to which home trading is originally confined.

RELATIONS WITH CUBA UNSATISFACTORY.

AMERICANS and others who have hoped to see the American occupation of Cuba and the relinquishment of the island to independent native rule prove to be the preliminary to cordial relations between the two governments seem doomed to disappointment.

The Cuban congress has failed to carry out the provisions of the Platt amendment, approved by the Cuban constitution. A treaty of reciprocity has not been negotiated, naval stations have not been selected, the status of the Isle of Pines has not been settled.

It will doubtless be claimed by some persons that the misunderstanding between the two governments is due wholly or chiefly to the failure of our own congress at its last session to adopt the reciprocity law as proposed by the Republican caucus. But the facts do not warrant this conclusion. The statement is made on good authority that the Cubans would not be content with the concessions proposed in the bill as considered by congress, and there is also reason to believe that they are so well satisfied with their present conditions that they do not feel in any great hurry to give the United States extraordinary trade privileges in exchange for getting into the American markets.

The Cubans also doubtless inherit the "manana" habit from their Spanish ancestors, and the United States need not expect that they will be in any greater hurry to settle their national affairs than they are accustomed to in their private business.

There are a good many Americans, and some Cubans, who are very strongly of the opinion that the experiment of Cuban self-government must end disastrously and that the adoption of the Teller resolution at the beginning of the war with Spain was a great mistake.

But whatever may be the final outcome, the present situation is one that calls for a large amount of patience and if this is exercised it is to be hoped that the Cubans will come to realize that their best interests require a loyal carrying out of the pledges that have been made and the cultivation of the friendship of the United States.

Some of the opponents of the Rush Home Rule amendment seem to forget that the measure has received the overwhelming approval of the people of the state. And the people, presumably, know better what they want than a few selfish grafters and their advocates.

The activity of land office agents in exposing frauds in western states shows that the speculators have a very good idea of the increasing value of land in the western states.

The general sentiment of the west is that Tom Horn has deserved hanging, but that it is a pity he will be so lonesome. And maybe Tom Horn thinks so too.

There is no doubt that Democracy wants a leader. But the real trouble is that no leader worthy of the name wants Democracy.

FROM THE PRESS OF THE NATION.

The Lesson of the Election.
(San Francisco Chronicle.)

President Roosevelt is quoted as saying that the meaning of the elections is that "the people have given the Republican party the chance to make good." No "politician" would have ever made such a remark, but President Roosevelt is a most earnest and virile American citizen, who says what he thinks for the time being, regardless of the chance of being misquoted, and the people like him the better for it. The context plainly shows that what the president had in mind was that the Republican party would stand or fall, according to the dealings of congress with the trust problem during the next two years. The president is reported as saying that "the prices of commodities had risen more rapidly than the prices of labor, and it would be the business of the government to reduce the first without lowering the second."

The president probably does not pretend to be an economist; his life, since maturity, has been far too strenuous to admit of deep study upon the cause of prices. We doubt whether any real student of such matters would either affirm or deny his alleged postulate that the prices of commodities have risen faster than the prices of labor. We do not know the yearly income of workingmen and cannot get it. The wages of some classes of labor have evidently risen faster than prices of commodities. In other instances the reverse may be true. It is certain, at any rate, that "wages" have advanced and are advancing, while "salaries" are stationary, and it is the salaried class which is suffering most, if there is suffering anywhere. But there is no suffering. It is unquestionably true that there was never a time in our history when all classes were so well able as now to purchase the necessaries of life and pay current prices for them, whatever these prices may be. Wages always rise more slowly than commodities, and the daily wage is much slower to fall. In 1890 nominal wages were enormously higher than current prices, but labor was suffering because there was little work to be had. It is not possible to maintain a stable ratio between wages and prices. Sometimes one is gaining, sometimes the other. Prices may be gaining just now.

Only two things can reduce prices. One is the contraction of the currency. That is not now occurring and is not expected. The other is such a loss of confidence in the future as checks production and dumps surpluses on the market at any price. Any notion that high prices result from the action of "trusts" is chimerical. Trusts are no greedier than the same persons as individuals. There are almost no trusts which approach a monopoly of their product, and while all trusts desire to get unreasonable prices, very few are able to do so, and many trusts have reduced prices. These are the economic facts, but the president is doubtless right in saying that, regardless of economics, the people will hold the Republican party responsible for the control of capital and will judge by results and not by theories. And the president expects the party to satisfy the people in this matter. And so do we.

Canada and the United States.
(Baltimore Sun.)

The Montreal Star is very much out of patience with an article by Professor Beesly in the Positivist Review about the relations of Canada with Great Britain. Professor Beesly says that "the British flag is out of place on the American continent," that it will have to go before long, and that "the connection of Great Britain with Canada is an ever-pressing and uncompensated danger, from which, if we are wise, we will lose no time in disentangling ourselves." Professor Beesly is an Englishman, a leading educator and editor of a prominent London review. The danger of the connection between Canada and Great Britain is, therefore, in the professor's opinion, to Great Britain, and not to Canada. This view of the situation is bitterly resented by our Canadian contemporary, which declares in effect that Professor Beesly does not know what he is writing about, but learned his lesson from Goldwin Smith.

"For the policy of scuttle, which he thus commends to Britons," the Star adds, "he asks for Canadian support by applauding a quotation from the Roosevelt who had not become a statesman or president when he wrote the impertinent and foolish words, 'Americans regard Canadians with the good-natured condescension felt by freemen for men who are not free. Every true patriot, every man and statesman alike looks forward to the day when no European power will hold a foot of American soil.'"

Our contemporary then proceeds to prove to its own satisfaction that the people of Canada actually enjoy a greater degree of freedom than those of the United States. The people of Canada, it contends, exert a powerful influence in the affairs of the British empire and govern themselves absolutely. The people of the United States, it maintains, do not govern themselves, but are governed by bosses. It says:

"As to freemen—if the rule of law made by themselves is freedom, surely Canadians are more free than their very much lynch-law governed republican neighbors. They are more free, on the one hand, from the iron grasp of a highly, if vaguely, organized plutocracy, and on the other hand, from danger of a popular revolt against the industrial system and the political system which it so much directs. They are free from the American maze of government by irresponsible caucuses, irresponsible committees, irresponsible legislatures and a national system by which irresponsible log-rollers manage public affairs in such a complicated hole-and-corner way that the people never have nor can have a clear issue presented to them, nor see an alternative in voting for one or the other of two equally corrupt parties, nor be able to get at the blunders of the sinners who most need kicking."

This is an exceedingly frank expression, if not altogether neighborly, and no one can say that it is altogether without truth. The Star also discusses the relative prosperity of the two countries and declares that Canada is more prosperous than the United States, although it has not the millionaires. The wealth is better distributed and the property more generally enjoyed. The Canadian working classes, it says, are better clad, better fed, better sheltered, as well educated, less scorned by the wealthy, more cared for in legislation and far less hampered in endeavors to rise to a higher grade. In testimony of the truth of this contention the Star cites the fact that Canada refuses to accept the incessant invitation of the United States to become a part of the great republic. "Great Britain would not stop us if she could." The reason they do not annex is the conviction that they are better off as they are.

Colorado Election Frauds.
(Omaha Bee.)

The Republican press and party in Colorado are to be commended for the conservative action they have taken with reference to the frauds in the late election in that state. It is the fair, judicial position that if the frauds alleged to have been committed in Denver are proved, then the legal and political consequences should follow, but that the Democratic legislative candidates are not to be ousted arbitrarily and as a matter of mere partisanship.

In any view the Colorado Republicans won a most notable victory, carrying most of the counties, all but one of the congressional districts, the lower house and the whole state ticket—and this in a state which returned a Bryan majority of 134,882 in 1896 and of 29,061 in 1900. Nothing but the fact that one-half of the membership of the state senate holds over prevented them from carrying that body also, thus securing a big majority in the legislature on joint ballot and the defeat of Teller for the senatorship. As it is, control of the legislature on joint ballot depends entirely on the contest of the members from Arapahoe county, in which Denver is situated.

There is the most positive assertion of extensive and systematic frauds in the Democratic interest in the city of Denver. They run the whole gamut of political corruption, embracing elaborate frauds in registration and balloting, bribery, repeating, colonization and connivance and intimidation by the Democratic police and election authorities. These crimes were promptly and specifically charged at the time, and so overwhelming were the proofs that good citizens without distinction as to party organized in advance of the election to expose and punish the perpetrators.

It is a difficult task to trace with legal proof such a system of corruption in all its ramifications, especially when investigation tends so powerfully to excite partisan passion. The investigation, however, is proceeding in the courts in an orderly manner, and upon its result will depend the contest before the legislature. Whether the exposure of the election frauds can be made legally effective to defeat their unrighteous purpose or not, it will be morally effective to finish Democratic and Fusion misrule in Colorado.

Sticking to the Last.

A great many young people cannot tell, when they first start out, where their real bent lies; they cannot tell what they can do best; but, as they develop more, their strong qualities come out—their predominant faculties push their way to the front. Again, a college course or an advanced course of education develops faculties which had lain dormant, perhaps from disuse. In other words, the entire setting of the mental faculties often changes a great deal during one's physical and mental development, so that what the boy can do best may not be the bent of the man at all.

The relation of the faculties is greatly changed by the special training of one set of brain faculties, so that what was dominant at the outset of an education or a course of training may become subordinate by other faculties which have pushed themselves forward in the course of development.

No man should stick to his last if he is convinced that he is in the wrong place and that there is a possibility of satisfying his inclination elsewhere. No man should stick to his last, if a change is possible, when he is convinced that he is getting his living by his weakness instead of his strength.

No man should stick to his last, when to do so will tie him forever to commonness or mediocrity, if a larger, fuller expression of life is possible.

No man should stick to his last when a better and higher way is open to him. No man should stick to his last when he finds that to do so will cramp his better life and handicap his career.—(Orison Swett Marden in "Success" for November.

Education by the Way.

Henry Ward Beecher was once asked how he had acquired the knowledge of the processes of all kinds which enabled him to draw so freely on the whole range of devices, methods and machines used in manufacturing of every variety. He replied that, whenever he found himself in the neighborhood of a factory and had a little time to spare, he made it a practice to go through the establishment, ask questions, and try to understand everything he saw. In this way, without any special exertion, simply by using his eyes, his mind, and his time, he had come to know a great deal about many kinds of manufacturing, and this knowledge supplied him with a great fund of metaphors and illustrations, often of a very striking character. In like manner, whenever he was thrown with anyone of a different occupation, he made it a point to induce his companion to talk about his work, his habits, his skill. The great preacher went out of his way to secure a box seat on a stagecoach, in order that he might talk with the driver, watch his ways, learn his language, and get his point of view. If he was to make a journey on a steamboat, he asked permission to go into the pilot house, and drew the pilot into talk about piloting boats, and life on the river or lake. In this way he came to have a very wide knowledge of men, of their different points of view, their various skills and the things for which they cared most. He took the attitude of a learner, and was able to pour out such a flood of thought because he continually added to his own store of knowledge.

Antlers Bowlers Bring [illegible] Victor's W[illegible]

Special to the Gazette.

Pueblo, Colo., Nov. 13.—The delegation of Colorado Springs bowlers, known as the Antlers Bowling team, had no difficulty in defeating "Kupp's Big Five" of this city at the new Kuppinger alleys in Bessemer this evening. The Antlers team bowled in fine form, while the Kuppinger aggregation were not up to the standard at all. The Antlers' margin of 197 pins indicates the truth of this statement. Daneron of the local team had poor luck in the first game and only bowled 75. This had considerable to do with the poor showing made by the Kuppinger team. All of the Antlers bowlers delivered the goods and in only one game was the total number of pins bowled by one man less than 150. The Springs team deserve great credit for the victory on account of it being both their first game on the new alleys and also their first game outside of Colorado Springs this season. The team was unused to the alleys but that made no difference in the result.

The Antlers team will return to Pueblo the first Saturday in December, when a match will be played with the Rover Bowling team on the Rovers alleys. This game will be one of the best of the year as the Rovers are considered the best in the city. Score:

AN EXPERIMENT CAUSED SENSATION IN COURT

By Associated Press.

Camden, N. J., Nov. 13.—A frog was poisoned in court today to show the jury the agonies of a human being dying as a result of being poisoned with strychnine. Paul Woodward, who is alleged to have lured two boys, Brice Jennings and Paul Coffin, from this city into the woods and having caused their death with strychnine, was on trial and Prof. Marshall, of the University of Pennsylvania, was testifying. He took some of the poison extracted from the liver of Paul Coffin and forced it into a live frog. The jury and all others in court became intensely interested and in a few minutes the frog went into convulsions. The professor explained the action of the drug as the frog, writhing, exhibited all the agonies the boy had suffered as he died.

The experiment caused a sensation in the court room.

AMERICAN PROTEST.

By Associated Press.

San Domingo, Nov. 13.—Minister Powell has presented to President Vasquez a strongly worded request for the annulment of the decree now in force, governing the shipping charges collected at Dominican ports. He will return shortly, and has promised then to attend to Mr. Powell's request.

TO ADVANCE WAGES.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 13.—Notices signed by J. M. Wallis, general superintendent of the West Penn railroad, were posted in the offices of the company at Allegheny today, to the effect that an advance of 15 per cent would be made in the wages of all employes permanently in the service of the Pennsylvania system east of Pittsburg, who are now receiving less than $200 a month, to take effect November [illegible].

CARACAS RE-ESTABLISHED AS CAPITAL OF VENEZUELA

By Associated Press.

Caracas, Venezuela, Nov. 13.—The Official Gazette yesterday published a presidential decree re-establishing Caracas as the capital of the republic and as the seat of executive power. The disbanding of the revolutionary forces continues.

It has just become known that during the night of November 2, the government guns having discovered that the revolutionists were short of ammunition, attacked them at midnight in their last stronghold, near San Mateo, precipitating the retreat which the revolutionary leaders had planned for the same morning.

The latest news regarding the whereabouts of General Matos, leader of the revolution, is that he was recently near Nirgua, two days' march from Barquisamento, or three days from Tucacat on the Atlantic, the only two places from which it is possible for him to flee from Venezuela. Matos was accompanied by Generals Mendoza, [illegible]era, Solagnio, Crespo, Torres and others. In all they had 40 horses. The government forces have captured Matos' hammock, cap and slippers and letters which gave a clew to the connection of Matos with the Mocnist party.

VICTORIA MEMORIAL FUND.

By Associated Press.

London, Nov. 13.—In acknowledging the final installment of $75,000, contributed by Americans towards the Queen Victoria memorial fund, Lord Mayor Samuel today wrote to Chairman van Daser, of the American committee as follows:

"The liberality shown by your countrymen is a practical demonstration of the regard and esteem entertained for her majesty in the United States. This generous tribute will touch the hearts of the English people."

SWITCHMEN'S DEMANDS.

By Associated Press.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 13.—Representatives of the switchmen on the Union Pacific railroad system gathered in this city today preparatory to laying before the officials of that road a demand for an increase of 12 per cent in wages, bringing the scale up to that recently adopted in Chicago. Representatives of the order of railway trainmen are presenting the demand on behalf of the switchmen, there being one member each from Grand Island, North Platte, Cheyenne, Denver, Kansas City and Omaha. They will meet President Burt tomorrow.

DISASTROUS FIRE IN A PENNSYLVANIA TOWN

By Associated Press.

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 13.—The town of Olyphant, six miles north of Scranton, was swept by flames today and an entire block in the business portion was destroyed.

The blaze was caused by an explosion of a gas tank in the center of Atherton's department store. Building after building went down to ashes in a remarkably short time. The city hall and jail were among the buildings destroyed. The people fought desperately with the flames for the protection of their property and goods, and furniture was strewn about promiscuously. A call for help brought fire companies from Scranton and other neighboring towns. The loss is estimated at between $175,000 and $200,000.

By Associated Press.

Madrid, Nov. 13.—A hitch has occurred in the formation of the new cabinet in consequence of the desire of Senor Moret to relinquish the interior portfolio to Senor Romero Robledo. Premier Sagasta, however, wishes Senor Moret to retain the portfolio. The disagreement has caused friction.

After an audience with King Alfonso today Senor Sagasta informed a representative of the Associated Press that difficulty had arisen regarding the inclusion of Robledo in the cabinet, but another conference will be held this evening with Robledo and other leaders and it is hoped that it will effect a solution of the crisis.

POSSIBLE REORGANIZATION OF THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR

By Associated Press.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Nov. 13.—About 30 delegates from all parts of the United States assembled here tonight to consider what may eventually prove to be a reorganization of the Knights of Labor. Among those present were John N. Parsons, Simon Burns, president of the National Glass Workers association, Thomas Canning of Boston, Mr. O'Meara of Washington, J. F. Durlacher of New York, and John Carmody, representing the United Hatters of North America. The most important step thus far was the deposition of Secretary-Treasurer John W. Mayo of Washington. His successor, together with national officers will be elected tomorrow.

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 13.—The attendance upon the sessions of the National Grange Patrons of Husbandry today was greatly increased. Members of the opposition challenged every vote with the result that 20 divisions were taken between 11 o'clock and 3 this morning when the house adjourned.

VENEZUELA REVOLUTIONISTS LACK NECESSARIES OF LIFE

By Associated Press.

Panama, Nov. 13.—The government gunboat Bogota returned to this port last night to repair some slight damage to one of her pumps. She also brought some valuable revolutionary correspondence which had been captured by members of her crew. From these papers it would seem that the revolutionists are without salt, provisions and other necessaries and that there is much sickness in their camps.

As soon as her pump is repaired the Bogota will again sail in search of the revolutionary fleet. Captain Marmaduke of the Bogota is of the opinion that the recent work of his ships' cannon will make the revolutionists more careful in the future. He says the death of Richard Kane, the ships' armorer, was paid for dearly by the rebels.

By Associated Press.

London, Nov. 13.—A special dispatch received here from Rome says that the Sicilian police who have for a long time been trying to capture the notorious brigand named Varsalone, yesterday raided the district of Cammerata, in the province of Girgenti, and took prisoners 60 persons, among whom were a marquis, a mayor, several doctors and a number of lawyers.

In the course of the drag-net operations a wealthy land owner named Lineo barricaded his house and shot one policeman and wounded another.

The police were unsuccessful inasmuch as they failed to capture Varsalone, who is still at large.

NATIONAL ORGANIZATION OF COMMERCIAL TELEGRAPHERS

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 13.—A convention of Commercial Telegraphers from all parts of the country has been called to meet in this city on November 6. Delegates from about 50 cities are expected to be present. The object is to form a national organization with which all the existing locals may affiliate. At present there are two national organizations which claim jurisdiction over the commercial telegraphers, and in addition there are a number of local organizations which are affiliated with neither. Both the national organizations, the Brotherhood of Commercial Telegraphers and the International Union of Telegraphers have applied to the American Federation of Labor for a charter. The executive council of the federation on October 17 decided to call a convention of all the locals and let this convention amalgamate the three sections, draw up laws to govern it and select a name, after which a charter will be issued by the American Federation of Labor.

Pursuant to these instructions, President Samuel Gompers of the Federation, today sent out the call for the convention from headquarters in Washington.

NOTICE OF APPEAL IN CASE OF THE CUBAN CHILDREN

By Associated Press.

New York, Nov. 13.—Notice of appeal was filed with the treasury department today in the case of the 11 Cuban children who were detained by the immigration bureau here when they arrived en route from Santiago, Cuba, to Mrs. Katherine Tingley's school of Buddhism at Point Loma, Calif. The appeal calls for a reversal of the decision of the special board of inquiry that the children be deported. New York, Nov. 13.—Patrick Bolan, for seven years trusted porter at the Holland house, has been arrested in a Bowery pawn shop, where he was endeavoring to pledge for $35 a necklace of pearls valued at $2,500.

The prisoner was taken to police headquarters, where he is said to have given information which will lead to the recovery of jewels valued at $12,000 stolen some time ago from the apartments of Mrs. W. J. Mathewson, wife of a wealthy manufacturer. The police have been much worked up over the robbery as there was absolutely no clew and had almost given up the hope of success, when two detectives observed Bolan entering the pawn shop. The robbery is supposed to have been effected by gaining entrance to the apartments through a window.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 13.—In spite of the fact that the cheap rates to California have been withdrawn the travel in that direction is surpassing all records. The Rock Island Golden State flyer is always crowded with passengers and although the railroad officials made provisions for an extra heavy traffic they did not look for any such rush as they are now experiencing. Many home-seekers are among the California passengers.

The duties are onerous, and the executive officers have so much to do in their official capacities that they cannot satisfactorily attend to these other duties. Victor Bureau Colorado Springs Gazette.

Victor, Nov. 14.—Yesterday a Swede by the name of Charles Nalnquest, who lives in a small cabin near the Victor mine was taken from his home by two masked men, who administered an awful beating to the unfortunate Swede. They desisted in their nefarious work only through the intervention of a friend, who happened to be passing by, and was attracted by the screams of the victim. Nalnquest claims that he identified both of his assailants, but would not start any legal action, as he says life would probably pay the penalty if he did. It is rumored in this city that the cause of his severe beating was the outcome of a saloon bill, which Nalnquest had refused to pay.

THE CHILDREN ENJOY

Life out of doors and out of the games which they play and the enjoyment which they receive and the efforts which they make, comes the greater part of that healthful development which is so essential to their happiness when grown. When a laxative is needed the remedy which is given to them to cleanse and sweeten and strengthen the internal organs on which it acts, should be such as physicians would sanction, because its component parts are known to be wholesome and the remedy itself free from every objectionable quality. The one remedy which physicians and parents, well-informed, approve and recommend and which the little ones enjoy, because of its pleasant flavor, its gentle action and its beneficial effects, is—Syrup of Figs—and for the same reason it is the only laxative which should be used by fathers and mothers.

Syrup of Figs is the only remedy which acts gently, pleasantly and naturally without griping, irritating, or nauseating and which cleanses the system effectually, without producing that constipated habit which results from the use of the old-time cathartics and modern imitations, and against which the children should be so carefully guarded. If you would have them grow to manhood and womanhood, strong, healthy and happy, do not give them medicines, when medicines are not needed, and when nature needs assistance in the way of a laxative, give them only the simple, pleasant and gentle—Syrup of Figs.

Its quality is due not only to the excellence of the combination of the laxative principles of plants with pleasant aromatic syrups and juices, but also to our original method of manufacture and as you value the health of the little ones, do not accept any of the substitutes which unscrupulous dealers sometimes offer to increase their profits. The genuine article may be bought anywhere of all reliable druggists at fifty cents per bottle. Please to remember, the full name of the Company—CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.—is printed on the front of every package. In order to get its beneficial effects it is always necessary to buy the genuine only.

UNKNOWN BURGLAR HAD HIS HEAD BLOWN OFF

By Associated Press.

Elyria, O., Nov. 14.—Marshal Henry Krohn was seriously shot and an unknown burglar had his head blown off in a battle here early today. The shooting occurred during a fight with four robbers who completely terrorized the town. The gang stole horses and rigs, entered several houses and shot recklessly in a wild charge down the main street of the town.

J. H. Baird was awakened by burglars in his house. He got up and saw two masked men standing on either side of his bed. Drawn revolvers were pointed at his head, but in spite of this he jumped from bed and grappled with the intruders. In the darkness they broke away and fled from the house.

The burglars then entered the home of Town Marshal Krohn, who opened fire on them. When he had shot three times, one of the robbers, who had jumped into a buggy, got out and began blazing away at the marshal. At the third shot, the latter fell with a bullet through his hips.

Baird, who had meantime arrived at the scene, picked up the officer's gun and continued firing. The robbers, however, drove rapidly away.

Baird followed them to the home of Superintendent W. J. Hillier of the Cleveland, Elyria & Western railway. Even when Baird again opened fire on the robbers, they walked into the Hillier home, after smashing in the door. The noise on the stairs aroused Hillier and he reached for his gun, loaded with small shot.

A burglar cautiously opened the door and Hillier blew his head off with the first discharge. The other robber turned and ran, but Hillier discharged the second barrel. The robber yelled and tottered but did not fall. He ran into the street and disappeared.

A posse was at once formed and is pursuing the robbers. Marshal Crohn is seriously and perhaps fatally wounded. It is not known how badly the other robber is hurt.

The dead robber's linen is marked "Davis." He had in his pocket a mileage book sold at Oil City, Pa., to "Mr. Davis."

CONFERENCE RESPECTING THE PANAMA CANAL

By Associated Press.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Mr. Cromwell, counsel for the Panama Canal company, called at the state department today and had a conference with Secretary Hay respecting the next steps to be taken in view of Attorney General Knox's opinion on the sufficiency of the canal title to carry out the transfer of the property to the United States government. The Spooner act requires a treaty with Colombia to be made before the canal company's property is actually purchased by the United States, but this treaty is now well advanced toward completion so that it is deemed proper to consider other measures relating to the French title. It is also understood that after a conference with such senatorial leaders as have been in Washington recently Secretary Hay has pretty well satisfied himself that if such a thing were desirable congress would readily amend the Spooner act so as to wipe out the condition that a treaty must precede the purchase. In such case the canal property having been bought, the United States government would go ahead [illegible] treaty negotiations to follow. But as already [illegible] and Senor Concha have progressed so satisfactorily as to warrant the belief that no such recourse to further legislation will be necessary.

The present status of the treaty negotiations is that there is now in the hands of Secretary Hay, who is waiting to submit it to the president, a proposal from Colombia suggesting modifications of the treaty which the United States originally proposed. This is being considered point by point and while it is not doubted that it will not be accomplished as a whole, yet there is said to be fair ground for compromise between the two propositions.

IN THE BLOOD

"Can the Ethiopian change his skin or the leopard his spots?" The question stands for all time as expressing the climax of the impossible. You can only change the skin by changing the nature of the blood which tints it, and the nature of the blood cannot be changed. But the quality of the blood may be changed in any man or woman. Poor blood can be made rich—foul blood can be made pure, and by this change of blood there may be produced a change of skin. The blotched, pimply face is caused by impure blood. Make the blood pure and the pimples and blotches disappear, and the skin is changed from rough to smooth, from unsightliness to beauty. It is the same with other eruptions—salt-rheum, eczema, boils, scrofulous sores, etc.; they are the result of bad blood, blood that is clogged and corrupted by poisonous impurities. Cleanse the blood and these defiling and disfiguring diseases are entirely cured.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery claims attention as the foremost blood-purifying medicine, by its successful cures of eruptive and other diseases which are the result of impure blood. It has cured scrofulous sores and ulcers in their most malignant form, and after every other means of cure had failed. It has cleansed the flesh of blotch and pimple, and restored to the skin the soft texture and delicate tint of health. It has cured the torments of eczema, salt-rheum and tetter in those who after years of suffering had been called incurable. It has proved itself in thousands of cases most wonderful in its lasting cures of blood diseases of long standing. These claims are abundantly substantiated in the following letters from physicians and others who have used "Golden Medical Discovery" for the blood.

"I am using a good many of your medicines in my practice," writes Dr. Joseph Fike, of Lost Springs, Marion Co., Kansas. "Ten years ago there was an emigration from Rusland to this country and there was a lady in the company who was badly affected with that dreadful disease, scrofula. Her mouth and throat were in an awful condition, and there were lumps on the outside below the jaws the size of a hen's egg. Other doctors had been called and they said it was a fatal case. I was called and made my diagnosis. I felt confident that none of my remedies would benefit her any. It came to my mind that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was recommended for such cases, so I went to the drug store and bought one bottle and gave it to her to use as directed. Five bottles cured her and she is well to-day. She is married now and has three healthy children."

"I had catarrh for four years, also liver and kidney trouble," writes John A. Calloway, of No. 218 26th St., Columbus, Ga. "In 1894 I was working at night and I broke out in lumps all over, and when these left the skin peeled off. I had pimples and a brown spot on my face. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the best medicine I ever used in my life. I took six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' two of Dr. Pierce's Pellets, eight packages of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and now I am sound and well. I have a good appetite, but before I commenced treatment I had no appetite at all. My eyes were sunken and my face was pale. Now these symptoms are all gone. I have used many kinds of medicines, but received no benefit until I used the 'Discovery.' Last year I weighed one hundred and thirty-four pounds, and I now weigh one hundred and forty-five."

"I was troubled with eczema from the crown of my head to the soles of my feet," writes Mrs. Ella Quick, of Cass City, Tuscola Co., Mich. "Could not walk at times nor wear my shoes. Thought there was no help for me—at least the doctor said there was none. I went to see friends at Christmas time and there heard of the good that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery had done for them, and was advised to try it at once. For fear that I might neglect it my friend sent to the village and got a bottle and made me promise that I would take it. I had been getting worse all the time. I took thirteen bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and ten vials of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and used 'All-Healing Salve,' which made a complete cure. It was slow, but sure."

There is no class of medicines more plentiful than those which, under one name or another, are offered as "blood-purifiers." Among the few standard medicines Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery ranks easily first as a scientific preparation, as well as because of its many wonderful cures. "Golden Medical Discovery" promises more and does more than any other medicine. It cleanses the blood, but it also keeps the blood clean by stopping the source from which the corrupting elements are chiefly received into the blood. Blood is made from digested food. When digestion is imperfect undigested particles are carried into the blood to clog it and corrupt it. These are all eliminated from the blood by "Golden Medical Discovery." But more than this, "Golden Medical Discovery" cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food, and hence cures the common cause of the blood's impurity.

If you are suffering from any form of blood disease which has failed to yield to treatment, give Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery a fair and faithful trial. It always helps; it almost always cures. The use of one or two bottles will often produce an improvement sufficiently marked to encourage the user to persevere until a perfect and permanent cure is obtained.

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach and blood.

EASTERN MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

Report of Ladenburg, Thalmann & Co., to William A. Otis & Co.!

New York, Nov. 14.—The London cables reported a decided uneasiness in Americans this morning, and our stock market, while opening with a show of activity gave every evidence of a weak and declining tendency. After the initial dealings there was a somewhat firmer tone apparent, but the activity lessened.

Shortly after the noon hour, a decided drive was made against the entire list causing declines of from two to four points. Several rumors were afloat to account for the attack, the most prominent being that the so-called western element started to sell stocks on a large scale, uncovering stop orders which led to a further acceleration of the selling pressure. Strong stocks have been forced out on every hand and there certainly is no sentiment of bullishness as regards the immediate course of prices. The known movements of money up to last night's close of business indicate a loss to the banks of over $3,500,000. This augurs an unfavorable bank statement tomorrow. Arbitrage houses sold about 25,000 shares on balance. Call money rate was not a factor, ruling around 5½. Demand, $4.87.

CHICAGO GRAIN & PROVISIONS.

Report of Logan & Bryan to William A. Otis & Co.

Chicago, Nov. 14.—Wheat—Liverpool ⅜ to ½ higher, Paris and Antwerp unchanged. Market here was fairly active and firm. The buying is largely local, as outside interests are still sluggish. Cash demand good. Broomhall cables a little better cash demand in Liverpool also and that market showed rather more tendency today to follow the improvement here. The buying in this market is certainly of the best character and if it were not discouraged by the large receipts and dull cables it might bring about better prices. Broomhall also cables that the Argentine prospects continue favorable. The May and December spread in this market continues to widen. On the whole, however, the situation is a fairly healthy one. Estimated cars, 85.

Corn—Liverpool ⅜ to 1¼ higher. There has all along been talk of manipulation in December corn and the action of the market begins to suggest probability. In any event, the short interest is out of all proportion to the stocks in store. The market for May is not very active and there is a good deal of bearish sentiment displayed in the trading. Short interest is extremely large. The buying so far as we can see is scattered but we regard it as rather better than the selling. The show of strength early in the day was continued wet weather and the strength in the December option. We are inclined to think we would buy May corn on the soft spots. It won't hurt much and something might make the shorts run. Estimated cars, 175.

Oats—Market is extremely dull and every way featureless. It fluctuates within extremely narrow limits in sympathy with corn and has no other character or tendency. Estimated cars, 190.

Provisions—Quiet and about unchanged. There was nothing of interest in the trading either in volume or character. Receipts, hogs 64,000 against 93,000 last year. The trade is generally expecting the movement to decrease. There is a fair cash demand except for lard.

Denver Market.

Denver, November 14.—Cattle—There is very little change in the condition of the cattle market, and trading was only fairly good. Heavy shipments were made which cleared the situation some. Cattle receipts today were the lightest of the week, but there was plenty for the demand, which is not as strong as earlier in the week. Some of the best cattle that have been on the market this week were among the offerings, a bunch of killers selling to the feeders at $4.10, freight paid. These steers tipped the scales at 1,143, and were from the Beaver river country. Packers bought some good beef steers from the San Luis valley, paying $4.20. The best fat cows on the market went to the feeder buyers at $2.25. The best price paid for feeders and stockers was $3.60 flat, and averaged a shade over 800 pounds. Although the loss on feeders and stockers has not been regained, the undertone to the market is stronger and all feel that the bottom has been reached. The beef market continues firm and there is no prospect of any decline on this class of offerings as soon as the supply is less than the demand.

Hogs—Hog receipts were light today, but there was a good supply on the market, as the late arrivals yesterday were on sale. The market was strong, but no higher, the top selling at $6.25. The general quality of the offerings was fairly good, with bulk selling at $6.17½. The demand for hogs in good and river prices are closely followed on this market.

Sheep—There was a liberal run of sheep in since last report, but all of them were consigned to one of the local packers, and will be placed in the feed lots for future use. The demand is good for choice muttons and fats for feeders. River quotations govern prices on this market.

COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Colorado Springs, Nov. 14.—The mining stock market this morning fell away somewhat from yesterday's strength but prices held up fairly well. There were no gains of consequence but such losses as took place were merely fractional. Acacia opened by a stationary quotation. Black Belle made a gain on the opening sale but dropped back fractionally on the last trade. Dante was a fraction higher on the opening but closed at yesterday's quotation. Doctor-Jack Pot was stationary and Isabella made a fractional gain. Portland gained on light trading. Among the preferred prospects prices were fairly firm. American Consolidated lost fractionally but this was the only loss in the list. M. J. T. gained fractionally and Twin Sisters made a substantial advance. The remaining stocks in this list were practically stationary. Among the prospects Aola made a fractional advance and Croesus and Zoe remained stationary.

COLORADO CITY NEWS

OFFICE—Tribble's Jewelry Store, 414 Colorado Avenue.

COLORADO CITY, NOV. 15.

[illegible] Pay Monday

Today is the regular monthly pay day of the United States-Philadelphia Reduction company, and something in the neighborhood of $25,000 will be checked out to the employes of the Standard and Colorado plants. The company's Union plant at Florence, has a monthly pay roll of about $10,000, the total reaching over $35,00. By far the larger part of the company's pay-roll is thus in Colorado City, and combined with the amount distributed on the 10th of each month by the Telluride company, the Midland and other railroads, makes the city perhaps more favored in the circulation of ready money than any place of its size in the state.

BONFIRE BREAKS UP BIG FARE RAVE

Gambling Paraphernalia Worth Approximately $2,000 Was Destroyed in Kiowa Street by the Sheriff and Deputy Dayton Last Night.

With a thousand people standing around watching the proceedings and making divers and sundry comments, Sheriff Gilbert last night carried out the mandate of Judge Cunningham of the district court and burned the gambling paraphernalia turned over to him by J. W. Blackwood and N. B. Hames. Judge Cunningham himself looked on the work of destruction from his private chambers in the court house.

It is estimated that the material destroyed was worth pretty close to $2,000. A few weeks ago, acting under orders of Judge Cunningham, Sheriff Gilbert burned paraphernalia worth about the same amount which had been seized in various gambling houses in Colorado City.

The fire last night was built in the middle of Kiowa street directly in front of the door of the sheriff's office. The first blaze was built under the electric light at the corner of Kiowa and Nevada just half a block away. The first last night was not so big nor so picturesque as the first one because of the fact that it did not have as much wood work in it, but it was witnessed by more people.

An inventory of the paraphernalia shows that N. B. Hames turned over to Sheriff Gilbert two roulette tables and the more valuable adjuncts thereto, the wheels, two "case keepers," a mustang game board, three faro tables and layouts, a crap table, a klondike board, a tin rack and several thousand chips. J. W. Blackwood deposited a faro layout and dealer's box, a case keeper, a lot of chips, a faro rack, a Klondike money rack, dice and dice box and a lot of chips.

The tables were first piled up and smashed so that they would burn more rapidly. Undersheriff Grimes, Deputy Sheriff Dayton and Court House Janitor Duncan assisted in the work of establishing the pyre. The chips were emptied out of the drawers in which they were turned in and put in a sack. Deputy Dayton put the roulette wheels on top of the pile so they would show up well. The chips and smaller paraphernalia was reserved until the blaze got to going well. Janitor Duncan had secured a couple of big cans of oil and poured it over the pile. Then at exactly 8 o'clock Sheriff Gilbert and Deputy Dayton touched off the pile from opposite sides.

The blaze started feebly at first, but gradually gained headway and suddenly shot upward with a roar which caused the crowd to fall back in a hurry. In a few moments the entire pile was ablaze and burning well. Deputy Dayton then brought out the sack of chips and consigned them to the flames. They went like a flash. Then Dayton pulled some dice out of his pocket and threw "seven and a cold turkey" into the fire. The dice rolled out of the blaze, however, and a small boy grabbed them and took to the luxuriant vegetation. Even the drawers of the tables were thrown onto the pile and finally Deputy Dayton came forth with a faro dealer's metal card box which he tossed into the flames. The crowd stayed until the last moment and the remarks which passed then and fast were curious and amusing. Some one proposed three cheers for Judge Cunningham and then cheered loudly himself. There was no other response.

Many expressed regret at the destruction of so much property although in the eyes of the law it is not property and has no value as such. Many spoke a souvenir of the event and stayed until the last moment to get something out of the charred mass. There were a large number of women in the crowd and they appeared to take great interest in the proceedings.

It is said that the fire last night destroyed the last vestige of gambling paraphernalia in Colorado City excepting cards. No cards have yet been destroyed at all for the very simple reason that none were seized or turned in. To replace the stuff destroyed last night would require an outlay of several thousand dollars and it is not likely that any effort will be made to get any more such paraphernalia into Colorado City for years to come.

MINE WORKERS' CHIEF TALKS

rule for the local government of local affairs.

"The only manner," he said, "in which the national organization is permitted to interfere is that, before a strike is inaugurated by the district organization the approval of the president of the national union must be obtained; but the president of the national organization has no authority to inaugurate a strike. Thus the coal mine operators are afforded a greater measure of protection against strikes than they would have under a separate and independent organization."

As to the responsibility of the mine workers' organization, Mr. Mitchell said:

"At the present time the United Mine Workers of America has contracts with the operators of 14 states and districts, fixing the amount the miners shall receive per ton, the amount the various classes of labor shall receive per day, the number of hours which shall constitute a day's work, and the methods and machinery for the adjustment of local grievances by joint conference with the mine owners. These are mutual contracts which are advantageous to both miner and operator and protect the public against the effects of strikes or lockouts.

"The reports of the United States government on strikes in the mining industry show that the number and duration of strikes has been materially reduced each year since the system of joint conference and mutual agreement has been introduced.

"Where the United Mine Workers of America is recognized and contracted with, it assumes the responsibility of disciplining its members. The trade agreement has proved effective in restraining workmen from engaging in local or general strikes. There have been no strikes of any magnitude in any of the coal mining states in which trade agreements exist. We seek to establish the same method of adjusting wage differences in the anthracite field.

"It is said that the competition between anthracite and bituminous coal is a reason upon which the anthracite operators oppose a recognition of the miners' organization. That this objection is neither valid nor consistent is clearly demonstrated by the fact that many of the railroads officered by the same men who control the anthracite coal mines enter into trade agreements with railroad organizations, a majority of whose members are employed upon other and competing roads.

"We demand recognition because we know that permanent peace and friendly relations can be best maintained through a trade agreement with the organization which our people have elected to join. Fully 90 per cent. of the employes of the anthracite coal mines are members of it from choice, they desire to retain their membership in it. It was the United Mine Workers of America that conferred with the president of the United States in relation to the submission of the issues involved in the coal strike to this commission; it was the United Mine Workers of America that was requested by the president to end the strike; it was the United Mine Workers of America that declared the strike at an end; it was the United Mine Workers that sent the men back to work, and it is the United Mine Workers of America that pledged to accept the award of this commission.

"Failure to recognize the organization was the cause of the many local strikes against which operators and mine workers jointly complained. There have been many local strikes during the past year, the fault of which rests upon operators and miners alike. The miners, failing to secure redress for their wrongs (the companies having refused to treat with their representatives,) had no choice but to submit to injustice or inaugurate a strike.

"Recognition of the union does not mean dictation or interference by men not employed by the companies; it simply means that officers selected by the mine workers shall exercise supervision over the organization or shall counsel with the mine workers how their trade affairs shall be conducted. The miners have as much right to select spokesmen to act for them, to present their grievances, to manage their affairs, as have the stockholders of any one of the anthracite coal companies to elect their officers to perform like functions.

"For the information of the commission we herewith outline more specifically a plan of procedure which, if adopted, would prevent local strikes and preserve peace and harmony during the time covered by the award which you are empowered to make.

"First, the rate of wages, the hours of labor, the method of weighing and paying for the product of the miners' work should be incorporated in an agreement between the representatives of the various coal companies and the representatives of the organization of which the complainants in this case are members.

"Second. There should be a committee of conservative representative mine workers selected by the employes at each colliery; it should be the duty of this committee to co-operate with the mine foremen in the adjustment of local disputes which cannot be settled between the mine foremen and the mine workers involved.

"Third. Should the mine foremen and mine company fail to adjust the grievance complained of, the matter in dispute should be referred to the company's superintendent and a general grievance committee which should be constituted of representative mine workers from each colliery operated by any one company. Should they fail to adjust it, it should be referred to the general manager of the coal company and the district president of the miners' organization, and should they fail to adjust it they should call upon the services of some disinterested person whose decision should be final, pending an adjustment in the manner set forth, the mines and the miners should continue at work."

Mr. Mitchell concluded with a plea for the children. He said:

"Our little boys should not be forced into the mines and breakers so early in life; our little girls should not be compelled to work in the mills and factories at an age when they should be in school. These children are the future citizens of our nation; their parents should be enabled to earn wages sufficiently high to give them at least a common school education so as to equip them to bear the grave responsibilities that will ultimately devolve upon them. The wealth and the future of the nation are not to be measured by its palaces and millionaires, but rather by the enlightened contentment and prosperity of its millions of citizens who constitute the bone and sinew of our land."

During the reading of his address Mr. Mitchell was followed with the closest attention.

Mr. Mitchell then began to call witnesses to be examined by his attorneys, by those representing the coal companies and also by the commissioners. Most of the witnesses will be practical miners, and they will give testimony in support of the demands formally laid before the commission in Mr. Mitchell's preliminary statement of last week. About 20 or 30 miners will take the witness stand. After the workmen have concluded their case the operators will make their defense. It is expected that more than two weeks will be taken up in hearing both sides.

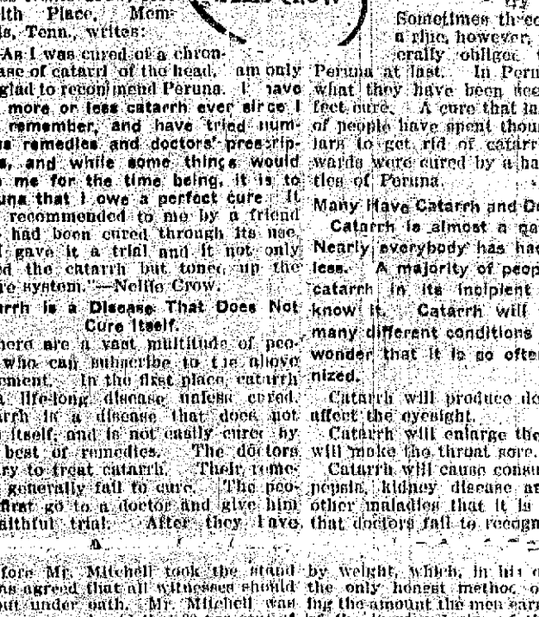

President Mitchell was host at the first witness.

SUFFERED ALL MY LIFE WITH CATARRH

Miss Crowe Says: "I Have Had Catarrh Ever Since I Can Remember---Pe-ru-na Cured Me."

MRS. M. E. JENKINS

MISS NELLIE CROW

Miss Nellie Crow, 1114 Edith Place, Memphis, Tenn., writes:

"As I was cured of a chronic case of catarrh of the head, am only too glad to recommend Peruna. I have had more or less catarrh ever since I can remember, and have tried numerous remedies and doctors' prescriptions, and while some things would help me for the time being, it is to Peruna that I owe a perfect cure. It was recommended to me by a friend who had been cured through its use, so I gave it a trial and it not only cured the catarrh but toned up the entire system."—Nellie Crow.

Catarrh Is a Disease That Does Not Cure Itself.

There are a vast multitude of people who can subscribe to the above statement. In the first place, catarrh is a life-long disease unless cured. Catarrh is a disease that does not cure itself, and is not easily cured by the best of remedies. The doctors all try to treat catarrh. Their remedies generally fail to cure. The people first go to a doctor and give him a faithful trial. After they have tried one doctor, they generally try another. Sometimes three or four. As a rule, however, they are generally obliged to resort to Peruna at last. In Peruna they find what they have been seeking—a perfect cure. A cure that lasts. A host of people have spent thousands of dollars to get rid of catarrh and afterwards were cured by a half dozen bottles of Peruna.

Many Have Catarrh and Don't Know It.

Catarrh is almost a national curse. Nearly everybody has had it more or less. A majority of people who have catarrh in its incipient stage don't know it. Catarrh will produce so many different conditions that it is no wonder that it is so often not recognized.

Catarrh will produce deafness. Will affect the eyesight.

Catarrh will enlarge the tonsils and will make the throat sore.

Catarrh will cause consumption, dyspepsia, kidney disease and so many other maladies that it is no wonder that doctors fail to recognize it.

Female Catarrh Very Common Among Women—Peruna Cures Catarrh Wherever Located.

Mrs. M. E. Jenkins, President Victoria Lodge, Queen's Daughters, in a letter from 133 Goyeau Street, Windsor, Ont., Can., writes:

"I heartily endorse Peruna as an excellent tonic for a weak and broken down woman, for such I was before I began taking Peruna and it really worked wonders with my system. My health is excellent now, and whenever I feel languid or nervous I take a few doses of Peruna and it goes right to the spot. A number of my friends have taken it and are universal in its praise."—Mrs. M. E. Jenkins.

Peruna cures catarrh wherever located. Peruna cures catarrh in whatever form. Accept no substitute for Peruna. Peruna is the only systemic remedy for catarrh yet devised.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

Parents Take Interest in Work of the Public Schools

Parents' meetings were held in all of the public schools of the city yesterday afternoon with the exception of the Helen Hunt school, which held its meeting in the evening. School was dismissed at the other buildings at noon and the afternoon given over to the teachers, parents and patrons of the schools who discussed at considerable length the different questions pertaining to the relations of the home and the school. At a great many of the schools there was a regular program in which papers were read before the discussions. Refreshments were served after the meetings and a social session held.

Superintendent Dietrich reports that yesterday's meetings were the most successful ever held in the city. In many cases the rooms in which they were held were not large enough and visitors had to be seated in the halls. While there were not as many fathers present as the superintendent and teachers would like to have seen, there were over 1,200 mothers and patrons of the schools present at the different buildings. Superintendent Dietrich visited all of the buildings and President O. E. Hemingway of the board of education also visited a number. The meetings proved full of interest to all present and they were decidedly informal. Nearly everyone present took part in the discussions and a great deal of good probably resulted. The purpose for which the meetings were held was to bring the teachers and parents and patrons into closer touch and to a better understanding and from all indications this object was accomplished. Everything passed off smoothly and the series of meetings were by far the most successful that have ever been held in the city schools.

Following are some of the programs of yesterday afternoon at the different buildings:

Washington school—Speeches by W. S. Morris, Mrs. Charles Wheeler, Rev. E. H. Lyle of the Second Presbyterian church, and Mrs. Bierbauer. General discussion.

Garfield school—"Round Table," discussion of the deportment of pupils on the street and in public places. Dr. H. W. Hoagland read a paper on the "Early Detection of Contagious Diseases," which was of considerable interest to all parents of school children as well as the teachers.

Helen Hunt school—Judge James Orr Lee led discussion upon the subject of "The Boy." Dr. W. W. Hills spoke on "The Value of Regular Habits in Character Building." Prof. J. H. Jackson also spoke upon "The Moral Influence of Games."

Lillie school—Rev. C. B. Wilcox spoke on "The Influences of Environment." A general discussion followed which was led by Mrs. Lucke, Mrs. Tucker, Mrs. Pauillins, Mrs. Burk and Mrs. Burnside. A recention followed the discussion.

Lowell school—"Effects of Irregular Habits Upon Home and School," by Miss Shannon. "Habits and Character Building," by Dr. W. H. W. Bayle, and "What Children Read, and When?" by Mrs. Dunbar.

Lincoln school—Discussions of "The Child Out of School Hours." 1. Home responsibilities of the child. 2. Indoor recreation. a. Literature. b. Games. 3. Outdoor recreation. a. Nature study. b. Play.

Columbia school—"The Training of American Citizens," by Rev. Benjamin Brewster. The different points of the subject were discussed by F. H. Gandy, Miss Meredith Smith, supervisor of manual training in the public schools of the city; Arthur Bray, D. A. Russell, Miss Lois Burt, Miss Chamberlain, Mrs. Barker, Dr. Chamberlain, Miss Weller, Superintendent Deacon of the Printers' home, Mr. Karsen and others. The points given special attention were: The mental, physical, social and patriotic sides of the question. Manual training in the city schools were also taken up.

The other schools of the city had also special programs for the day.
